This cause came on regularly for hearing before the Court on this 14th day of January, 1949 without a jury upon the complaint of the plaintiff and the answer of the defendant, the court finding that he was not in the military service within the meaning of the act of Congress approved October 17, 1940 as amended and known as the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act of 1940, and that order permitting this cause to proceed to hearing and judgment has been duly entered, and the plaintiff appearing in person and by her counsel Sam S. Griffin and the defendant not appearing;

WHEREUPON, Evidence on behalf of plaintiff was presented, and the defendant presenting no evidence, the court having considered the same, finds and concludes that the allegations of the complaint are true and that the defendant has been guilty of inflicting grievous mental suffering and extreme cruelty upon the plaintiff, and that a decree of divorce should be granted in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that she should have the custody of the child of the parties, written findings of fact and conclusions of law having been waived.

NOW THEREFORE, upon motion of attorney for the plaintiff;

-I-

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between NORMA CLIFTON and JOSEPH CLIFTON are hereby dissolved and that each of said parties is forever freed of all the obligations of said marriage.

This case came on regularly for hearing before the Honorable Chas. F. Koelsch in the above-entitled court on the 7th day of January, 1949; plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Claude Marcus, of Boise, Idaho; Defendant not appearing nor being represented by counsel.

Upon proper showing of service and failure of Defendant to plead to the complaint herein within the time required by law, the default of Defendant was ordered entered herein. Whereupon, testimoney was introduced in behalf of Plaintiff and no testimony was submitted in behalf of Defendant; the court being fully advised in the premises, both as to the law and facts, finds as follows:

II

That Defendant, Jack R. Leech, is not now in the

And upon said hearing, it satisfactorily appearing to the court that the defendant herein, Jack Wrenn, was personally and duly served with summons herein attached to a copy of the complaint referred to in the said summons and on file in this cause, and the defendant having acknowledged service and entered his general appearance, and having refused to plead further and authorized entry of default against him for his failure and refusal to plead further, and the time for so answering or otherwise pleading to the complaint having expired, and no answer, demurrer, or other plea having been filed; and it satisfactorily appearing to the court from an affidavit filed by the plaintiff that the said defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America in any capac-

This cause came on regularly to be heard in open Court on the 21st day of January, 1949, the plaintiff being represented by her Attorney, J. M. Lambert.

The time for answer having expired, and no answer or other plea having been made to the complaint herein, and the records showing due service of process, and affidavit being of file showing the defendant is not now, and for more than six months last past, has not been in the military service of the United States of America, as defined in section 101 (1) of the Soldier's and Sailor's Relief Act of 1940, or any amendments thereof--the default of the defendant is entered. Evidence having been presented to the court for the plaintiff, and there having been corroboration as to plaintiff's residence in the State of Idaho for more than six full weeks prior to the filing of the complaint.

The court finds that the defendant has been guilty of wilful desertion of the plaintiff and of wilful neglect and failure to provide for his wife and their minor child the common necessities of life, he having the ability so to do and that the allegation of the complaint are sustained by the evidence; and that the plaintiff has been a resident of the state of Idaho for more than six full weeks preceeding the filing of this action.

NOW THEREFORE, IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant be and they are hereby dissolved, and the parties hereto are restored to the status of single persons. The plaintiff is awarded the exclusive care and custody of Roma Lee Carberry the minor child of said parties.

DECREE OF DIVORCE
#21858

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in Open Court at Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the 28th day of January, 1949. The plaintiff appeared in person and through his attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by publication of summons as required by law and had failed to appear and answer, or otherwise plead to, the plaintiff's complaint filed in said cause, that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and answer or plead to said cause, and it further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit and satisfactory evidence adduced that the defendant is not, and has not been since the commencement of this action, nor for more than one year prior thereto, in military service of the United States of America, or its allied nations, as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of her complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to her residence in the state of Idaho, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision and after considering the evidence, and being fully advised, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that said defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty and wilful desertion, and that plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and the plaintiff divorced from the defendant.

EARL JAMES LEWIS, Defendant.

JUDGMENT AND DECREE.

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the Honorable L. E. Glennon, District Judge of the above Court, at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, on the 26th day of January, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her counsel, Black and Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear, either in person or by counsel.

IT APPEARED To the Court that Summons and Complaint in this cause were duly and regularly served by personal service thereof upon the defendant, but that said defendant failed within the time allowed by law, or at all, to appear and plead to or answer the Complaint of the plaintiff herein; and

IT FURTHER APPEARED that defendant is not in the Armed Forces of the United States and that the default of the defendant for failing to appear and plead was duly and regularly entered. Evidence both oral and documentary was thereupon introduced for and on behalf of plaintiff by plaintiff and a witness, free from all objections as to its competency and from which evidence it appears that all of the material allegations of plaintiff's Complaint are true and correct and such are found to be the facts, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the Complaint.

IT FURTHER APPEARED That, subsequent to the filing of the Complaint herein, the parties to this action entered into a written Stipulation, by the terms of which they agreed upon the division of the community property, custody of the minor children, alimony, support of the minor children, which Stipulation has been presented to the Court, and the Court further orders that said Stipulation is approved by the Court, and the terms thefeof are hereinafter incorporated in this Decree; and the making of findings of fact and conclusions of law were waived by the default of the defendant, and by Stipulation of the parties.

That the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff for the support and maintenance of the minor children of the parties the sum of $60.00 per month, the first payment of which shall be due and payable February 1, 1949, and such payments shall be due and payable from the defendant to the plaintiff on the first day of each and every month hereafter.

4. It appears from the Stipulation, on file herein, that the plaintiff and defendant have agreed to divide the community property of the parties equally between them and therefore the following described real property is awarded to the plaintiff and defendant, share and share alike, and each of said parties is hereby awarded and adjudged to own an undivided one-half interest in and to the following described real property:

> Home located at 772 Birch Street, described as follows: Beginning at the Northeast corner of Lot 8, Block 3, Hill Chase Park Sub-Division, Bannock County, State of Idaho, thence North 59°37' West a distance of 85 feet to place of beginning; thence South 6°55' East distance of 166.3 feet to the Southerly Boundary Line of said Lot 8; thence South 79°50' West a distance of 62 feet; thence North 13°55' West a distance of 182.3 feet to the North Boundary Line of said Lot 8; thence South 89°37' East a distance of 85 feet to place of beginning; same being a part and portion of Lot 8 and 9, Block 3, Hill Chase Park Sub-Division of City of Pocatello, County of Bannock, State of Idaho, as per plat thereof on file in the office of the County Recorder, Bannock County, Idaho.

This matter came on to be heard before the court on the 4th day of January, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, C. H. Higer, and the defendant being in default made no appearance. THEREUPON the Court heard the sworn testimony of plaintiff and her corroborating witness and finds that the alligations of plaintiff are true and that the defendant herein deserted the plaintiff on or about the 1st day of December, 1945 and ever since said date has lived separate and apart from plaintiff. The Court further finds that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody, and control of said children and that said children are hereby awarded to her, said children being as follows;

Willard Toliver, age fifteen years,
Grace Toliver, age fourteen years,
Eugene Toliver, age eleven years,
Stephen Toliver, age seven years,
Robert Toliver, age four years.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the court, and this does order, adjudge and decree, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and they are hereby dissolved and plaintiff and defendant are absolutely divorced from one another; and it is the further judgment of the court that Sherley, and the defendant not appearing in person or being represented by counsel, witnesses having been sworn and testified on behalf of the plaintiffs, and from the testimony it appears to the Court that Yvone Shaver, a minor child of the plaintiffs, was on June 12th 1948 of the age of fifteen years and in the care, custody and control of the parents and at all times prior to said date; that the defendant, Hugh Montgomery, and the said Yvone Shaver, without the knowledge or consent of the plaintiffs or either of them, became married at Winnemucca, Nevada on the said 12th day of June, 1948, and it further appearing to the Court that neither of said parents of the said Yvone Shaver have since said date consented to said marriage.

It further appearing to the Court from the testimony produced on behalf of the plaintiffs that the defendant, Hugh Montgomery, was at the time of said marriage and now is a minor and is engaged in the military services of the United States of America, the Court thereupon took said matter under advisement.

It now appearing to the Court that since the hearing of said matter by the Court, that on request of the defendant, this Court has appointed Elmer Montgomery, the father of said defendant, as his guardian ad litem herein; and that said guardian has appeared in said action and filed his demurrer to plaintiffs' complaint, and has thereafter, by and with the consent of this Court, withdrawn said demurrer and refused to plead further in said action, and has consented that a default may be taken against the defendant herein; and that the default of said defendant has been duly and regularly entered herein.

EXHIBIT "A"

A G R E E M E N T

Made and executed this 29th day of June, 1948, by and between CHARLES H. CADIGAN (hereinafter called "Husband"), party of the first part, and ELIZABETH W. CADIGAN (Hereinafter called "Wife"), party of the second part.

Husband and Wife were married on the 10th day of September, 1927, in Pelham, New York . There have been issue of the marriage as follows:

Jeanne, born July 11, 1930

Judith, born November 28, 1933

Charles Richard, born March 20, 1937

In consequence of disputes and unhappy differences the parties heretofore separated and are now and have been living apart. In view of their intention to live separate and apart for the rest of their natural lives, they are desirous of settling their property rights and agreeing on terms for the maintenance and support of the Wife.

NOW, THEREFORE, THIS AGREEMENT WITNESSETH:

That, in consideration of the premises and of the mutual covenants herein contained, and for other good and valuable considerations, each of the parties hereto has covenanted, contracted and agreed as follows:

CHC

1. The parties may and shall at all times hereafter live and continue to live separate and apart. Each shall be free from interference, authority and control, direct or indirect by the other as fully as if he or she were sole and unmarried. Each may reside at such place or places as he or she may select. Each may, for his or her separate use and benefit, conduct, carry on, and engage in any business profession, or employment which to him or her may seem advisable.

EWC

2. The parties shall not molest or interfere with each other, nor shall either of them compel or attempt to compel the other to cohabit or dwell with him or her, by any means whatsoever.

3. Husband shall make the following payments to Wife:

(a) The sum of Five Thousand Eight Hundred Dollars ($5,800) to be paid at the time of the execution of this agreement, One Thousand Eight Hundred Dollars ($1,800) of which is to be used by the Wife toward the education of their daughter, Jeanne.

(b) During the life of Wife and commencing July 1st, 1948, Husband will pay a minimum sum of Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250) per month for the maintenance and care of the Wife and three (3) children of the parties hereto.

(c) It is understood, covenanted and agreed that if thirty-three and one-third per cent (33-1/3%) of the gross income or salary of Husband shall be greater than the sum of Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250) a month, then Husband will pay, in addition to the minimum sum of Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250) a month heretofore mentioned, the amount by which the said thirty-three and one-third per cent (33-1/3%) of the gross income of Husband exceeds the said minimum payments.

(d) Husband further agrees that if his net income in any year exceeds the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) after the payment of taxes, he will pay, in addition to the sum hereinbefore provided for, by way of increased alimony to Wife for the purposes above stated, fifty per cent (50%) of the amount by which his said income exceeds the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000).

CHC

4. It is understood, covenanted and agreed between the parties hereto that it is their intention to reduce the amount of alimony herein provided for to be paid for the support and maintenance of Wife, as hereinbefore stated, by one-sixth (1/6th) of the total amount thus agreed to be paid as each child, heretofore mentioned, reaches the age of twenty-one (21) years.

It is the purpose of this provision to so arrange matters that when all of the three (3) children of the parties hereto have reached the age of twenty-one (21) years, the income thereafter to be paid by Husband to Wife shall be one-half (1/2) that which would have been paid prior to any of the children having reached the age of twenty-one (21) years.

5. It is understood, covenanted and agreed between the parties hereto that:

(a) If Wife shall be ultimately divorced and shall also remarry, in that event fifty per cent (50%) of the amounts otherwise agreed to be paid to her under this agreement shall not be payable under the terms thereof.

(b) Upon the execution of this agreement all legal steps shall at once be taken to transfer the title of a certain Dodge Sedan automobile, now owned by Husband, to Wife, whose sole property it shall thereafter be.

(c) All other personal property heretofore belonging to the parties to this agreement shall be divided between them in the ratio of eighty per cent (80%) of the said property to Wife and twenty per cent (20%) thereof to Husband.

CHC

6. It is further understood, covenanted and agreed between the parties hereto that the children of this marriage, named elsewhere in this agreement, shall be under the care and guidance of Wife, but that

Husband shall be allowed to visit them at all times reasonably satisfactory to Wife.

7. The Wife accepts the provisions herein made for her in lieu of and in full settlement and satisfaction of any and all claims against the Husband for her support and maintenance, and in full settlement and satisfaction of any and all other claims and rights whatsoever (including but not by way of limitation, dower and all rights under the laws of testacy and intestacy) which she ever had, now has or might hereafter have against the Husband by reason of their relationship as Husband and Wife or otherwise. The Wife hereby releases and acquits the Husband and his estate of and from any and all claims, liabilities and obligations whatsoever except only such as are specifically assumed by or imposed upon the Husband hereunder. It is the intention of the parties that except as otherwise provided herein, all liability of whatsoever nature on the part of the Husband to the Wife, past, present, and future, actual or potential, whether arising from their relationship as husband and wife or otherwise, shall cease and terminate absolutely and forever. The Wife warrants to the Husband that she has not heretofore incurred any obligations whatsoever for which the Husband or his estate may be or may become liable, except those specified in this Agreement. Should any such obligations arise, the Husband shall have the right to deduct the amount thereof, together with all incidental expenses incurred by him, from the payments to be made by him to the Wife hereunder. So long as the Husband shall duly perform the terms and conditions of this Agreement on his part to be performed, the Wife shall not at any time hereafter incur any debt or incur any obligation for which the Husband or his estate may be or may become liable; the Wife shall at all times hereafter, so long as the Husband shall duly make the payments herein provided for, keep the Husband and his estate free and harmless from any and all debts and obligations resulting from her acts.

CHC

8. Each party releases and relinquishes any and all claims and rights that he or she may have had, may now have, or may hereafter acquire (a) to share in any capacity or to any extent whatsoever in the estate of the other party upon the latter's death, whether by way of statutory allowance, or distribution in intestacy, or election to take against the other party's last will and testament under Section 18 of the Decedent Estate Law of the State of New York, or otherwise; and/or (b) to act as executor or administrator of the other party's estate. It is the intention of the parties that this provision shall serve as a mutual waiver of the right of election in accordance with the requirement of subdivision 9 of Section 18 of the Decedent Estate Law.

9. In the event of any dispute or misunderstanding arising out of, or in connection with this Agreement, such dispute or misunderstanding shall be arbitrated by the parties before some qualified person who shall be properly experienced in the subject matter of the controversy, and who shall be acceptable to both parties. Should the parties fail to agree upon such person, each party shall appoint an arbitrator, and the two arbitrators shall choose a third. The cost of the arbitration shall be borne as the arbitrator or arbitrators may direct. The decision of the arbitrator, or of the majority of the arbitrators, as CHC the case may be, shall be binding and conclusive on the parties, and shall be rendered in such form that judgment may be entered thereon in the highest court of the forum having jurisdiction thereof.

10. In the event that either of the parties hereto institutes an action for separation or divorce from the other, the provisions of this Agreement shall constitute a stipulation in such action insofar as any provisions for the support and maintenance of the Wife are concerned; and each party may request the Court to recognize this Agreement
EWO as a bar to any other or further provision and, to the extent that the provisions of this Agreement may be acceptable to the Court, the provisions hereof shall be approved in the final judgment or decree obtained in any such action brought by either party against the other for absolute or limited divorce in any competent jurisdiction.

11. The parties have incorporated in this Agreement their entire understanding. No oral statement or prior written matter extrinsic to this Agreement shall have any force or effect. The parties are not relying upon any representations other than those expressly set forth herein.

12. The parties hereto declare that each has had independent legal advise by counsel of his or her own selection; that each fully understands the facts and has been fully informed of all legal rights and liabilities; that after such advise, and knowledge, each believes the Agreement to be fair, just and reasonable; and that each signs the Agreement freely and voluntarily.

13. The parties hereto agree that if any question under this contract shall arise it shall be construed under the laws of the State of New York.

14. Husband agrees to carry for the benefit of his children not less than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) life insurance in reputable life insurance companies and to pay the premiums therefore from time to time as they become due. If on any occasion Husband's financial condition is such that he knows he is unable to meet a certain premium he will, in such event, give the Wife thirty (30) days notice of his inability to pay and thus permit her to pay the premiums on the said insurance. Husband further agrees that he will not borrow against the cash value of the policies, but permit them to accumulate through the years.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have set their hands and seals to four counterparts of this Agreement, each of which shall constitute an original, the day and year first above written, in the State of New York.

Each of the parties hereto hereby remises and releases any and all claims and rights of dower or curtesy, whether arising out of their marital relationship or otherwise, which she or he now has or may hereafter acquire in any land or real estate or personal or other property of which the other may now or hereafter be seized or possessed, and waives all right of inheritance from the other and waives any right of election which she or he may now or hereafter have to take against any last will and testament of the other, and renounces any right of administration upon the estate of the other, and each of the parties agrees to execute and acknowledge any instruments which may be necessary in order to assure to the other such release or waiver, so that the parties may act regarding their real and personal or other property exactly as if they were single and unmarried, and each party hereby appoints the other his or her attorney in his or her name, place and stead, to sign, seal and deliver all necessary or other proper releases of dower and curtesy or other instruments for the transferring, surrendering and relinquishing of all estate, right, title and interest which he or she now has or may hereafter acquire in any real, personal or other property now or hereafter owned by such other party.

8. The wife hereby releases the husband from any claims and liability for her maintenance and support and from all claims and duties arising out of the marital relationship except as herein provided. She represents that there are no debts contracted by her for which the husband is or might be responsible and agrees that she will not incur any further obligations in the name of the husband or pledge his credit.

9. The obligations set forth in this Agreement shall be binding upon the heirs, executors, administrators and personal representatives of the parties.

10. This Agreement is for the purpose of amicably settling the property interests of the parties. It has not been entered into for the purpose of binding either party to any policy in any action by either party for divorce, and the parties have not agreed and do not agree to a divorce, and have not agreed and do not agree not to defend any action brought by either party for divorce. This Agreement is entered into with the understanding that such Agreement is to be and remain effective regardless of whether either party shall ever institute a proceeding for divorce against the other or obtain any such divorce, irrespective of the terms of the decree or judgment in any such proceeding. Each party is and shall remain at liberty to institute or not to institute any proceeding for divorce or to assert any defenses which either may have in a proceeding for divorce brought by the other, and no provision of this Agreement shall affect the liability of the other for counsel fees or court costs in any such proceeding which may be brought. This Agreement, however, shall not be a bar to any action for divorce by either party against the other. In any action for divorce instituted by either party against the other, this Agreement shall be incorporated in whole or in part by reference or otherwise in any judgment entered therein. Notwithstanding any such incorporation, the provisions hereof shall not be merged in any such judgment or decree but shall in all respects survive the same.

11. Each party hereby waives, releases and discharges the other from any and all claims which he or she may or might have, or claim to have, against the other by reason of any matter, cause or thing whatsoever, except matrimonial actions and except claims founded upon the provisions of this Agreement.

12. It is specifically understood by and agreed between the parties hereto that in the event of any breach of any clauses of this Agreement and the waiver thereof by either of the parties hereto, such waiver shall not constitute a condonation of such breach, nor shall it be considered as a waiver of any other provisions of this Agreement. The failure to insist upon strict performance of any of such clauses shall not be deemed a waiver of the right to insist upon strict performance of any other conditions or of the same condition of this Agreement at any other time.

13. With the signing and execution of this Agreement by the parties hereto, all previous agreements heretofore entered into between the parties shall be conclusively deemed to have merged into and become part of this Agreement.

This instrument has been executed in duplicate, each of which is an original.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

MARGARET BRACKENBURY,
Plaintiff,

JOHN ROBERT BRACKENBURY,
Defendant.

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court, sitting without a jury, at Gooding, in the County of Gooding, State of Idaho, upon the 24th day of February, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Perce Hall, and the defendant appearing not, neither in person, by attorney nor otherwise;

Upon said hearing it appeared to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant John Robert Brackenbury had been duly and regularly served with summons in the manner provided by law and that said defendant had failed to appear and answer, demur or otherwise plead to the plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law, and the Court having entered its order allowing the entry of default judgment against said defendant, the default of said defendant was duly and regularly entered according to law.

And the Court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of her complaint, the cause was submitted and after duly considering the testimony introduced herein the Court finds the issues upon the plaintiff's complaint in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant and finds that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to have dissolved the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant;

And the Court further finds that upon the 12th day of January, 1949, the plaintiff and the defendant made and entered into one certain agreement in words and figures as follows:

A G R E E M E N T

THIS AGREEMENT, Made and entered into this 12th day of January, 1949, by and between JOHN ROBERT BRACKENBURY, hereinafter designated as the first party, and MARGARET BRACKENBURY, hereinafter designated as the second party, WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, The parties hereto are husband and wife and because of certain differences and disagreements which have arisen between them, they now plan to live separate and apart from each other, And,

WHEREAS, The said parties desire to settle and adjust certain of the differences and disagreements which have arisen between them, NOW, THEREFORE;

IT IS MUTUALLY UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED Between the parties hereto as follows:

1. That the parties hereto have one minor child, to-wit, Phillip Brackenbury, a boy five years of age, and it is agreed that the second party shall have and she is hereby awarded the care, custody and control of said minor child, and that the first party shall have the right to visit said child at reasonable times and to have said child visit him at reasonable times and for reasonable periods of time; that the first party shall pay to the second party towards the support and maintenance of said minor child and of the second party the sum of $75.00 per month on or before the 1st day of each and every month hereafter, commencing with the 1st day of February, 1949, and that the first party shall continue to make such payments for said child until the child reaches the age of majority; provided, however, that the said amount to be paid shall be subject to change by order of any Court having jurisdiction over the parties, such change to be based upon changed circumstances of the parties.

2. Neither of the parties to this agreement shall do or say anything intended or calculated to alienate the affection of said minor child from the other party.

3. It is understood that the parties hereto have certain moneys due and owing to them under Land Sale Contract dated November 15, 1945, executed by them, as sellers, with John H.

Battreall and Daisy E. Battreall, husband and wife, as buyers, covering real property described as Lots 11 and 12, 29 and 30, of Block 14 of College Place, City of Portland, Multnomah County, State of Oregon. The first party hereby assigns, transfers and sets over unto the second party all right, title, claim and interest which he now has or may hereafter acquire in and to any of such moneys, including both principal and interest, to be paid under said contract, and the first party hereby authorizes and directs Peninsula Mortgage Company of Portland, Oregon, as escrow holder, to pay over and deliver any and all of such moneys to the second party.

4. Insofar as the law will permit, the first party hereby assigns, transfers and conveys unto the second party all right or benefits which he may hereafter acquire under the Social Security Act or the Federal Old Age and Survivor's Insurance provisions, and which are the lawful subject of assignment, to have and to hold the same unto the said second party for the use, benefit and education of the said Phillip Brackenbury.

5. It is agreed between the parties hereto that all property hereafter acquired by either of them, whether by accumulation, investment or from their own labor, shall be the sole and separate property of the party acquiring the same, free and clear of any claim, interest or control whatsoever of the other party.

6. In the event the second party commences an action for divorce against the first party, it is agreed that all costs and attorney's fees incurred by her in such action shall be paid by the said second party.

7. Subject to the approval of any Court in which any action for divorce may be filed, this agreement may be incorporated into and may become a part of any decree of divorce which might be entered in any such action by the Court having jurisdiction.

THIS AGREEMENT made and entered into on this 19 day of February, 1949, by and between Earl Rector of Potlatch, Idaho, first party, and Charlotte Rector, of Potlatch, Idaho, second party;

W I T N E S S E T H :

That the parties hereto are husband and wife, and that differences have arisen between said parties as a result of which they are now separated, and are now living separate and apart, and intend to live separate and apart during the remainder of their natural lives. It is further the understanding of the parties hereto that they anticipate the prosecution of a proper action for severance of their marital status.

For the purpose of settlement, adjustment and compromise of all property rights between said parties, it is agreed that the first party shall receive and retain all separate property owned or possessed by him prior to the marriage of the parties hereto, or any property which he has inherited. In addition thereto the first party shall retain all community property now owned or possessed by the parties; said property being set out in an inventory annexed hereto and marked "Exhibit A", and made a part hereof as if fully set out at this point. In consideration of the passage to the first party of all the community property, the first party assumes all community debts of the usual and ordinary character, but does not acknowledge any debt as a community which he has not authorized, nor of which he has no knowledge, nor has not participated in. The reason for giving the first party all the community property is based upon the fact that heretofore the second party has received more than her share of the community property, and in addition thereto has received a part of the separate property of the first party, and has used the same for her own purposes and designs and for her own separate benefit, and not for the benefit of the community.

It is understood and agreed hereto that both the parties are gainfully employed, and have been so employed over a period of years. That the first party earns the sum of approximately $260.00 per month, and that the second party earns approximately the sum of $335.00 per month.

Each party hereto will make their own individual income tax returns for the year 1949, and will be separately liable for their own income and the tax thereon, either federal or state. The income tax for the year 1948 will be a joint income tax return of the parties, and each party thereto shall apply thereon the withholding tax, or any necessary funds to pay the same in proportion to their individual income.

In addition to the annexed community property, there are certain life insurance policies now in existence upon the life of the first party, and the beneficiary thereon is the second party. It is understood and agreed by and between the parties hereto that the second party waives any community or beneficiary rights of any type or kind she may have in said policies, and the first party is hereby authorized to change said beneficiary to any person whomsoever he chooses.

This agreement is a full and complete settlement of all property rights between the parties hereto as husband and wife, both now and after the death of either party to this agreement. From this time forward neither party shall have any interest of any kind or nature in or to any property, real, personal, or mixed, of the other party to this agreement; whether now owned by such party, or hereafter acquired.

In case either party applies for a divorce, this agreement shall be a full settlement of all property rights in such divorce action, and neither party to such action shall have the right to obtain any part of the property of the other, or require the other party to pay attorney fees, alimony, or suit money on account of such action for divorce. In the future neither party shall be under any obligation to support the other.

Each party to this agreement herewith solemnly and specifically avers that the foregoing agreement has been entered into without influence, or fraud, or coercion, or misrepresentation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties hereto have hereunto set their hands as of the day and year first above written.

This cause having come on duly and regularly for hearing before the Court on this 5 day of February, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by and through her attorney of record, and the defendant having failed to appear, answer or demur to plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law or at all, and the default of said defendant having been duly and regularly entered, and the Court having heard the evidence, both oral and documentary and being fully advised in the premises,

FINDS:

That service of summons upon the defendant was made pursuant to the Order of this Court duly and regularly entered by publication of the summons issued herein in the Lewiston Morning Tribune, a newspaper of general circulation published at Lewiston, Nez Perce County, Idaho, and designated by the Court as the newspaper most likely to give notice to said defendant, and which Notice was published once a week for five (5) consecutive weeks, the first publication thereof being on December 15, 1948, and the last publication thereof being on the 12th day of January, 1949. That a true copy of the Summons and Complaint were mailed to the defendant on December 14, 1948, addressed to the defendant at Spokane, Washington, the last known address of said defendant. That the defendant failed to appear, answer or demur to said complaint within the time allowed by law, or at all.

That the defendant is not in the military service of the United States in any capacity, and is not entitled to the benefits of the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended. That an affidavit of the plaintiff showing to the satisfaction of this Court that the said defendant is not in the military service of the United States in any capacity is on file herein as a part of the records and files in this case.

The Court further FINDS:

That all of the allegations contained in Paragraphs I, II, III, IV, V and VI, are true as alleged, and are incorporated in this Decree as Findings of Fact by reference, with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

That the defendant was not personally served with summons and complaint in this action, and by reason thereof the Court lacks jurisdiction to provide for the support, care and maintenance of the plaintiff and the minor children of the parties to this action. The Court reserves the right to fix a reasonable sum to be allowed the plaintiff for her support and the support and maintenance of said minor children.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

From the foregoing Findings of Fact, the Court concludes:

That the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty. That she is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of the three minor children named in Paragraph III of the complaint. That the defendant is not a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of said children, and that a Decree should be entered awarding the plaintiff the sole care, custody and control of said children.

That the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree awarding her as her sole and separate property any personal property in her possession acquired by the parties to this action during their marriage.

NOW THEREFORE, In consideration of the premises, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the plaintiff be, and she is hereby granted an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant, and the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and they are hereby dissolved.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the sole care, custody and control of the children herein named, and that the plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded the sole care, custody and control of the three minor children of the parties to this action, to-wit: Alta Lorraine Anderson, 7 years; Linda Lee Anderson, 5 years; and Clarence Albert Anderson, 3 years.

That the defendant is not a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of said children.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED: That the plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded any and all personal property now in her possession acquired by the parties to this action during the existence of said marriage.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the Court retain jurisdiction to fix the amount the defendant should be required to pay the plaintiff for her support and for the support and maintenance of said minor

In this action the defendant, Martin Varadi, having been regularly served with process and having failed to appear in answer to plaintiff's complaint herein, and the legal time for answering having expired, and the default of said defendant in the premises having been duly entered according to law; it having appeared by affidavit filed herein that defendant is not in Military Service.

#2I97I

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in open court at Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the IIth day of March, I949. The plaintiff appeared in person, and through her attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by personal service of a copy of the summons and complaint within the state as required by law and had failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed in said cause, or otherwise plead thereto, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and answer or plead to said cause; and it further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit and satisfactory evidence adduced that the defendant is not, and for more than sixty days prior to the commencement of this action has not been, in any branch of military service of the United States of America, or its allied nations, as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of I940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of her complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to her residence, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision, and after considering the evidence and being fully advised, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty as alleged in plaintiff's complaint, and plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, her former name of Estelle Droubay restored, and to be divorced from the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

(Ist) That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby, dissolved, and the plaintiff divorced from the defendant; and

#21963

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in Open Court at Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the IIth day of March, I949. The plaintiff appeared in person, and through her attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear, either in person, or by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by personal service of a copy of the summons and complaint within the state as required by law and had failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed in said cause, or otherwise plead thereto, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and answer or plead to said cause; and it further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit and satisfactory evidence adduced that the defendant is not, and for more than sixty days prior to the commencement of this action has not been, in any branch of military service of the United States of America, or its allied nations, as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Releif Act of I940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

After having moved to strike her second cause of action, the plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of her complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to her residence, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision, and after considering the evidence and being fully advised, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty as alleged in plaintiff's complaint, and plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED AS follows:

(Ist) That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendand be, and the same are hereby, dissolved, and the plaintiff divorced from the the defendant; and

DECREE OF DIVORCE

FOR

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in Open Court at Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the 25th day of March, 1949. The plaintiff appeared in person, and through her attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by publication of summons as required by law and had failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed in said cause, or otherwise plead thereto, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and answer or plead to said cause; and it further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit and satisfactory evidence adduced that the defendant is not, and for more than sixty days prior to the commencement of this action has not been, in any branch of military service of the United States of America, or its allied nations, as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of her complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to her residence, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision, and after considering the evidence and being fully advised, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty of and toward the plaintiff as alleged in the complaint, and that said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant, and to have the custody and control of the minor child, Bennie Sowers.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

(1st) That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby, dissolved, and the plaintiff divorced from the defendant; and

(2nd) That the plaintiff have the care, custody and control of the said minor child, Bennie Sowers.

Each party is to support, clothe and properly care for the child of which each has custody, without demand or contribution from the other party, and each of the parties hereto acknowledges his and her ability and willingness so to do. Either party shall have the privilege of visiting the child in the custody of the other at all reasonable times. Both parties hereto consent that in the event of a divorce between them, the provisions hereof relative to the custody of said children, may be incorporated in the decree of divorce, subject, of course, to the Court's right of modification relative to such custody at any time.

4. Each party hereto releases and absolves the other from any and all obligations and liabilities for the future acts and duties of the other, and each of said parties hereby releases the other from any and all liabilities, debts, or obligations of any kind or character incurred by the other from and after this date, and from any and all claims and demands, including all claims of either party hereto upon the other for support and maintenance as wife or husband, or otherwise, and each of the parties hereto, for themselves, their personal representatives and their heirs, will and does hereby waive any and all claim of every kind and nature in and to any moneys, real and personal property, and other assets of every kind that might be due to either from the estate of the other.

5. All property hereafter acquired by either of the parties hereto after the date hereof, shall be the sole and separate property of the party acquiring the same.

Plaintiff,

GENEVE H. BAIR,

The above entitled cause of action came on for hearing before me in my chambers in the City of Burley, County of Cassia, State of Idaho, and within the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho; the plaintiff appearing in person and with his witnesses and the defendant appearing not; and it appearing to the court from the records and files in said cause that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with summons and complaint; and it further appearing that the defendant is not in a military service of the United States of America within the meaning of the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act, and that the said defendant had duly filed a voluntary appearance in said cause and that the time of appearance has expired, and it is a proper matter to be heard at chambers;

Whereupon, witnesses were duly called, sworn and testified for and on behalf of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and the court after listening to all of said testimony free of all legal objections thereto, finds as follows:

That the plaintiff now is and for more than six weeks next preceding commencement of this action has been an actual and bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

The court finds that the plaintiff and defendant were intermarried on or about the 5th day of August, 1931, at Farmington, Utah, and ever since said time have been husband and wife.

The court finds that there was born the issue of said marriage the following minor children: LeGrand Bair, age 15 years, Bonnie Rae Bair, age 14 years, Judie Lee Bair, age 12 years, and Lorna Gale Bair, age 8 years.

The court further finds that prior to the commencement of plaintiff's action a contract of settlement of all of the community property of the plaintiff and defendant had been duly entered into; and the court finds that payments under and pursuant to said contract of property settlement have been duly made by the plaintiff as therein provided.

The court finds that the property settlement is fair, equitable and just, and the court thereupon ratifies each and all of the provisions of said property settlement.

The court further finds that pursuant to said agreement and pursuant to the testimony offered in said cause, that the plaintiff herein is a fit and proper person to have the care, control and custody of the minor children LeGrand Bair, age 15 years, and Judie Lee Bair, age 12 years, and that the defendant have the care, control and custody of the minor children Bonnie Rae Bair, age 14 years, and Lorna Gale Bair, age 8 years, subject to the right of the said plaintiff and defendant each to see the respective children at all reasonable times and places.

The court further finds that the plaintiff having proven all of the material allegations of his complaint, it is a proper matter for the entry of a decree of divorce.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant be dissolved and that the plaintiff be and is hereby granted the care, control and custody of the minor children LeGrand Bair and Judie Lee Bair, and that the defendant be decreed the care, control and custody of the minor children Bonnie Rae Bair and Lorna Gale Bair, subject to the right of each of the said parties to see said minor children at all reasonable times and places.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff be and is hereby decreed to be the owner as his sole, separate and individual property and estate of all of the personal property, consisting of 1325 head of cross-bred Rambouillet ewes and lambs, together with all camp equipment used in connection therewith.

AND BE IT FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the said plaintiff shall pay to the defendant the sum of $175.00 per month for the support of and maintenance of said defendant, Geneve H. Bair, and for the said minor children Bonnie Rae Bair and Lorna Gale Bair, until the sum of $10,000.00 shall have been paid.

And it is decreed that upon the payment of the sum of $10,000.00 said payment shall be in conformity with and in full settlement of all property rights.

DECREE OF DIVORCE.

THIS MATTER came on to be heard before the above entitled court on the 25th day of March, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, J. H. Barnes; defendant did not appear. It is shown to the Court that personal service of the summons and compaaint herein was had on the defendant in Twin Falls County on the 1st day of March, 1949; that the defendant did not appear and plead within the time allowed by law, and that on the 22nd day of March, 1949, the Clerk of this court entered the default of the defendant for failure to appear and plead. Now, on motion of plaintiff's attorney, it is ordered that said entry of default be and the same hereby is approved and conformed.

The plaintiff was sworn and testified, and a witness was sworn and testified in corroboration of plaintiff's testimony as to length of residence. From the evidence thus adduced, the Court finds that plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of Idaho for more than six weeks next preceding the commencement of this action; that plaintiff and defendant were married at Oakland, California, August 22nd, 1945, and ever since have been and now are wife and husband; that there is no property belonging to the community consisting of plaintiff and defendant; that there is one child, Danny Lambing, aged 2½ years, born of said marriage and now in the custody of plaintiff; that plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the eare, custody and control of said minor child; that defendant has treated plaintiff with extreme cruelty, by the infliction upon her of grevious mental suffering.

From the facts thus found, the Court concludes that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defndant on the ground of extreme cruelty; that plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the custody and control of the minor child of said marmiage, Danny Lambing, aged 2½ years; that defendant should be required to pay to plaintiff, for the partial support of said minor child, the sum of $25.00 a month; that defendant should be permitted to visit said child at plaintiff's home at reasonable hours and at reasonable intervals.

WHEREFORE IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does order, adjudge and decree, that the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be and they hereby are dissolved and that each of said parties be restored to the status of a single, unmarried person; that the custody of the minor child of said marriage, Danny Lambing, aged 2½ years, be awarded to plaintiff; that defendant be and he hereby is ordered to pay to plaintiff, towards the support of said minor child, the sum of $25.00 a month, commencing with the month of April, 1949, and to continue until the further order of the Court; that defendant be permitted to visit said child at the home of plaintiff at reasonable hours and at reasonable intervals.

NO. 21943 FILED A.M. P.M. APR 15 1949 OTTO F. PETERSON, Clerk BY DEPUTY

GEORGENE HAZEL DENNISON,

Plaintiff,

-vs-

LAWRENCE JOSEPH DENNISON,

Defendant.

#21943

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in open court at Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the 15th day of April, 1949. The plaintiff appeared in person, and through her attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by personal service of a copy of the summons and complaint within the state as required by law and had failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed in said cause, or otherwise plead thereto, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and answer or plead to said cause; and it further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit and satisfactory evidence adduced that the defendant is not, and for more than sixty days prior to the commencement of this action has not been, in any branch of military service of the United States of America, or its allied nations, as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended; and it also further appearing that an order to show cause had been issued by this Court, and properly served upon the defendant, returnable on the 8th day of April, 1949, and that said defendant did not appear on said date, either in person or by attorney, and is therefore, and thereby, in contempt of this Court, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of her complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to her residence, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision, and after considering the evidence and being fully advised, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that defendant is guilty of habitual intemperance of the use of intoxicating drinks to that degree which has disqualified him a great portion of the time from properly attending to his business, and which has inflicted a course of great mental anguish upon the plaintiff as alleged in plaintiff's complaint, and plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant; and

THE COURT FURTHER FINDS That the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the custody, control and care of the minor children of the parties hereto, and that defendant is not a fit or proper person to have such custody; and

THE COURT FURTHER FINDS That defendant is an able bodied man, and mentally capable, and should be compelled to contribute to the support and maintenance of the said minor children during their majority; and

THE COURT FURTHER FINDS That, said defendant being in contempt of this Court, said defendant should be compelled to pay to the plaintiff her accrued Court Costs in this cause, and a reasonable attorney fee to defray the expense of prosecuting this cause, and finds that under the circumstances the sum of one hundred fif ty dollars is a reasonable attorney fee for such services.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

(1st) That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are,

dissolved, and the plaintiff divorced from the defendant; and

(2nd) That the plaintiff have the custody, control and care of the minor children of the parties hereto, Barbra Jean Dennison and Michael L. Dennison, until they reach their majority, provided, that defendant may visit said children at reasonable and seasonable times, but under no consideration when he has been drinking intoxicating drinks, and that neither party to this action shall remove either of said minor children from the state of Idaho without the written consent of the other party, or by an order of this Court after due notice to the other party; and

(3rd) That defendant pay to the plaintiff toward the support, maintenance and education of the said minor children, the sum of thirty dollars for each child on the first day of each and every month hereafter until such child reaches its majority, dies or is married; and

(4th) That defendant pay to the plaintiff the sum of twenty dollars and sixty cents for Court costs and Sheriff's fees, and the further sum of one hundred fifty dollars attorney fees.

C. G. STEWART,
Defendant,

JUDGMENT AND DECREE

This cause coming on regularly to be heard this day, Plaintiff appearing in person and by counsel and the Defendant appearing not, either in person, by counsel or otherwise and it appearing to the Court that said Defendant was duly and regularly served with summons and complaint and that the time for the appearance of said Defendant has expired and a proper affidavit having been filed, showing that said Defendant is not in the military service nor entitled to the benefits and privileges of the Act of Congress cited and referred to as the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940 as amended, on motion of Plaintiff's Attorneys, the Default of said Defendant for failure to appear was thereupon ordered to be entered and the same was entered. The Court thereupon proceeded to the hearing of said cause and witnesses having been sworn and evidence was introduced by the Plaintiff in support of Plaintiff's complaint from which said evidence it appeared to the Court that all of the allegations of Plaintiff's complaint are sustained by evidence free from all objections as to competency, admissibility and sufficiency and that the said matters so alleged and proven are sufficient to entitle Plaintiff to the relief prayed for in said complaint and further that a certain property settlement agreement entered into by and between Plaintiff and Defendant under date of January 18, 1949 having been introduced in evidence and the case being closed and the law and the premises being understood and fully considered by the Court, the Court at this time makes and renders this Judgment and Decree, as follows:

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between Plaintiff and Defendant be and the same are hereby forever dissolved and held for naught and that Plaintiff is granted an absolute divorce from Defendant.

That the property settlement agreement above referred to and entered into by and between Plaintiff and Defendant is hereby ratified, confirmed and approved and Plaintiff is awarded the care, custody and control of Winston G. Stewart, the minor child of Plaintiff and Defendant, with the privilege on the part of Defendant to visit said child at reasonable times and intervals.

#22000

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in open court at Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the 15th day of April, 1949, and was continued until 2 o'clock P. M, April 18th, 1949. The plaintiff appeared in person, and through his attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by personal service of a copy of the summons and complaint within the state as required by law and had failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed in said cause, or otherwise plead thereto, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and answer or plead to said cause; and it further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit and satisfactory evidence adduced that the defendant is not, and for more than sixty days prior to the commencement of this action has not been, in any branch of military service of the United States of America, or its allied nations, as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of his complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to his residence, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision, and after considering the evidence and being fully advised, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty of and toward the plaintiff as alleged in the complaint, and that said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant; and the Court further finds that it is for the best interests of the minor children, and the parties hereto, that the said minor children be placed in the custody and control of the defendant subject to said minor children continuing to receive proper care, support and maintenance; and the Court further finds that the property settlement agreement made and entered into by the parties hereto is fair and just, and that adequate provisions have been made therein for the support and maintenance of the said minor children.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

(Ist) That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby, dissolved, and the plaintiff divorced from the defendant; and

(2nd) That the defendant have the care, custody and control of the minor children of the parties hereto, Donald R. Two chairs, cedar chest, silverware, one-half of the cooking utensils, one-half of all dishes, clothes hamper, toaster, one-half of all bedding, and radio (table);
